Sarbanes presiding. Opening Statement Of Senator Paul S. Sarbanes Senator Sarbanes. The subcommittee will come to order. This morning is an important hearing focusing on the public housing program. The subcommittee has been doing a series of hearings. We did one on the home program and then we had a hearing with the Secretary concerning HUD management programs. And we are going to be doing a hearing in the not-too-distant future on multifamily housing. This morning, we will focus on three key questions, at least I hope so: What is it that makes some public housing successful? What lessons can we learn from the successful public housing
