That officer, in General Sherman's absence, commands all the troops in this Department, except the posts on the east bank of the Mississippi, which are under Gen. Canby's orders. Louisiana and Texas constitute the Department of the Gulf, and the western part of Mississippi forms the Department of that name. The accounts received of General Sherman's operations, partly direct and partly from rebel sources, indicate that since leaving Savannah, his army has advanced in two columns, the left commanded by Gen. Slocum, the right by Gen. Howard. The latter was first sent by water to Beaufort, S. C, whence it captured Pocotaligo, on the Charleston and Savannah R. R. on the 14th ult., and from that point commenced its march. The left wing moved up the Savannah river, and on the 30th ult. occupied Robertsville, east of that stream...
