Purple House Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Joan Raysor (illustrator). 190 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The only edition authorized by Edward Ormondroyd, including a foreword he also wrote. Fully illustrated with the original drawings by Joan Raysor. With a tremendous surge of its wings, the Phoenix managed to seize a branch. David s leg slipped from the bird s back, and he dangled over the abyss. Thus ends the near-disaster of their first flight together. But don t underestimate the Phoenix! Failure only makes David s new-found friend determined to get into shape so that David s education for Life can proceed. And get into shape the fabulous bird does, with a lot of effort. But just as they conclude their first successful (and very scary) adventure, the Scientists appears. Don t underestimate the Scientist, either. He is just as stubborn as the Phoenix, and is driven by one obsession: to become famous by capturing the mythic bird. And if his traps don t work, he is fully prepared to shoot the Phoenix.
