Not illustrated. 1872 Excerpt: .What are the arrangements you would suggest with regard to it?--Either of two arrangements could be come to. The ground might either be transferred to the London Missionary Society, in order that the Society might give the right to purchasing erfholders, or the Government might hand it over to Hankey, when it had become a village, with all rights of grazing, 171. You think it should be kept entirely for grazing purposes?--Yes. 172. You would make it the commonage of the village?--Yes, 173. Colonial Secretary. Is there any grant of that land?--No, there is not a grant, but an authority to occupy. 174. Mr. Solomon. Then you would propose simply that there should be a remission of the transfer dues by the Government?--Yes, simply the transfer dues. The ground, I think, has been surveyed. T phiii-your on y object is to obtain a remission of the l--transfer dues, the amount would be hut little-would it not? May 17, 18-2.--yery litte; an(j yfQ wou(j rather pay it than that anything should be introduced into the Bill which would hamper the Society. 176. Is the survey you refer to a late one?--The surveyor 3! who is appointed by the Government for Crown lands of: a the Humansdorp district made it lately. It is not an old survey. F1 177. A question was put to you as to whether the missionary institutions in Kaffraria are on the same footing with those to which the Bill refers, and whether it...
