BOWDOIN ORIENT, VOL. 33: APRIL 23, 1903 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bowdoin Orient, Vol. 33: April 23, 1903 Our players have the making of a good team, but we must not be over-confident. Let us all give the team our hearty support this season, and our prospects for a winning team will be increased. The Orient calls attention to the fact that the light in front of the chapel was removed by some unknown last term. It seems almost unnecessary to call down college men for such behavior. As long as such depredations are committed, however, and are allowed to remain unreprimated, it will be hard to create a strong sentiment against them. We sincerely hope that there will be no further necessity for speaking about this matter. With the Maine meet now barely more than three weeks off, the shortness of the time in which our track men have to train is brought most forcibly to our minds. As Coach Lathrop clearly pointed out at the mass-meeting last week, three or four weeks is scarcely time enough to find out for what event a man is best fitted, to say nothing of getting him in the best condition for that event. Almost all of the colleges with which we compete overcome this serious difficulty which we regularly experience, by having a coach with them longer. Amherst, for instance, has a trainer throughout the year, and even in our own state the University of Maine has this year had a trainer since the beginning of the winter term. It is perfectly clear that this gives our sister colleges an immense advantage over us, and that our lack of training handicaps us most severely. This year, of course,...
