Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from New System of Handling and Educating the Horse: Together With Diseases and Their Treatment; Also a Treatise on Shoeing; Educating Cattle and Dogs, With Hints on Stable Management; With the Rules and Regulations of Trotting, Racing and Betting I then gave an exhibition at Leonardsville, Madison county, N. Y.; driving him without rein, and turning him loose in the streets as a trick horse, controlling him entirely by whip and word of command. He has been on exhibition ever since that time, and taking into consideration his willful and stubborn disposition, I consider him one of the best and most tractable horses on exhibition. On the 3d day of April, 1865, we commenced training a wild and nervous Black Hawk horse for Messrs. Williams Wilder, who were at that time receiving instructions from us, preparatory to giving instructions themselves. In about six days we delivered them the horse, and on the following week they gave a successful exhibition at Whitingham, Vt. They continued to give successful performances for some months, when, through entire carelessness on the part of the driver, the horse was severely injured by the breaking of a vehicle, and has not since been exhibited. We are informed that each of these gentlemen have a horse which they are driving without reins, broken according to our directions. I am surprised to see the above fabrication published by Messrs. Rockwell Hurlbut. Any man who gives his time and energy to the self-sacrificing business of teaching rational horsemanship, should be a man entitled to the respect of an intelligent people; but when, from jealousy or malice, he becomes thus reckless of truth and honor, he...
