The operation was done in a comparatively short time and the patient recovered beautifully. Dr. Franklin H. Martin. The subject of this sketch, Dr. Franklin H. Martin was born in Oconomowoc, Wis., July 13th, 1857. His education was received in various parts of the same State until 1877, when he came to Chicago and entered the Chicago Medical College. Upon the completion of his medical course, he obtained, by competitive examination, a position as interne in Mercy Hospital, where he served during the years of 1880 and 1881. Leaving the hospital, Dr. Martin decided to locate in Chicago, and immediately entered upon his professional career in that city. In 1884 he became much interested in the reports of Dr. Georges Apostoli, of Paris, concerning the use of electricity in fibroids of the uterus. Acting upon the principles laid down by Dr. Apostoli, Dr. Martin has, from that time to the present, worked most enthusiastically and successfully with electro-therapeutics, as applied to gynaecology and has probably done as much original work in this direction as any man in our country. He is one of the charter members of the Electro-Therapeutic Association and has always been keenly interested in the success of that organization. He is not, however, an enthusiast in electricity to the exclusion of all other means. In 1888 he was appointed to the staff of the Woman s Hospital, where he has won for himself the reputation of a skillful and...
