Shubhi Publications, 2008. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First. Turtuk, a small place nestled at the farthest end of Nubra valley in Ladakh has a unique history. It was part of Baltistan, had remained with Pakistan for a long time and then was reunited with India. Turtuk Unveiled which is first literary work of its kind on Indian side of Baltistan, throws light on the history of this region which is dominated by Balti tribals. The present book focuses on the history, culture, traditions and the developments in this highly inaccessible region in the past 40 years. It also documents the changes that have taken place in Turtuk in the aftermath of Kargil war which also changed the lives of the people of this region. The work is also an attempt to unite the gaze of tourists and cultural enthusiasts to explore this untouched land and thus open up new avenues for the serious researchers to take the journey to Turtuk beyond the concept of high altitude frontiers of India.
